Alexandra Palace Performing Arts School provides world-class performing arts training for 7–18 year-olds at London’s iconic Ally Pally. Under the guidance and support of industry professionals, students learn to act, sing and dance in a safe and inclusive environment, empowering them to grow in confidence, build new relationships, and let their talent shine. At the end of the year they’ll have the chance to perform on our very own stages.

Saturday Morning at Ally Pally

Each term will run over the course of 10 Saturdays. The spring term runs from week commencing 7th January to week commencing 25th March with a break at half term.

Our Young Stars will be split into three age groups:

7-10 11-14 15-18

These groups will rotate between our three core disciplines, with an hour of coaching in each one.
